British Value	History
All values	KS3 has a focus on British History in which is embedded in the idea of Britain emerging as the nation it is today. We examine the idea of a melting pot culture, how the rule of law developed, how we have grown into a nation which respects and tolerates each other and other nations and how we have fought for our freedom against various different challenges. At A-level Modern British history is the focus – this is a unit with a political focus, pupils learn about politicians like Margaret Thatcher and how this has impacted on current day Britain.
